

Go to the blog to find a color copy of this image. Complete the art analysis below.

I notice.... (Write down all the things that your see.)

I think.... Because..... (What do you think is happening? Who are the people? What are they doing? EXPLAIN WHY FOR EVERYTHING YOU SAY.)

I wonder..... (If you could find out anything about this picture or the people in the picture, what would you want to know?)

Protestant Reformation and Martin Luther

Follow the link provided on the blog to answer these questions. The link is titled "Protestant Reformation video link."

1. Who was Martin Luther?
2. What did Martin Luther do that was such a big deal? What did he do that was so threatening to the church?
3. Why did Martin Luther take the actions that he did?
4. How did Martin Luther's actions affect religion in Western Europe?
5. Connection to the essential question: Was Martin Luther rebelling? Why or why not? Rebellion exists in the story. Who was rebelling and do you think they were justified? (Was it OK that they were rebelling?)

Challenge Question: This event starts a movement called the Protestant Reformation. It is given this name for very specific reasons. Analyze the name of the movement: Protestant Reformation. Can you figure out why it was given that name? Talk to others if you need to bounce ideas around.