

Abrahamic Religions Unit Test Review

Name: _____

- How can religious texts (like the Torah, New Testament, and Koran) be used to understand history? – 2 ways
- Be able to analyze a passage from a religious text and identify historical information from the texts
- Know why Abraham is significant to both Jews, Christians, and Muslims
- Know the three types of monotheistic religions, the main religious texts for each, and what the followers of each are called.
- Know what a prophet is, and know the prophets accepted by Christians, Muslims, and Jews (Abraham, Moses, Jesus, Mohammed)
- Be able to interpret images of the following topics: Abrahams sacrifice of Isaac/Ishmael, The Last Supper, Ka’bah in Mecca
- Be able to recognize the symbols of each of the three monotheistic religions
- Know the cities that are sacred to Muslims, Jews, and Christians and why they are sacred.
- Canaan is the land that was promised to Abraham in his covenant with God. What is a covenant and where is Canaan today?
- Know how Mohammed is represented in books and why
- What is the Western Wall and the Ka’bah? Religiously, what do they have in common?
- Be able to use the 10 Commandments and the 5 Pillars of Islam to explain behavior in made up scenarios. – basically you need to be familiar with both
- How are the stories of Abraham, Isaac, Ishmael, Sarah, and Hagar connected?
- Know the historical importance of Abraham, Moses, Jesus, David, Solomon, and Mohammed
- Know what a pilgrimage is